Honoring: Donna Finn, Principal of the
Frank Sinatra School of the Arts
& Assembly Member Aravella Simotas

Donna Finn

Donna Finn has been principal of Frank Sinatra School of the Arts since September 2004 >> She started her career in education as an art teacher in 1992 >> She attended F.I.T where she majored in Fine Art and continued her education at Queens College, where she earned a B.A. Fine Art, MSE Art Education and an Administrative Diploma for Education >> Finn oversees a dual mission instructional program at Sinatra where a competitive academic and pre-conservatory arts program is offered to 800 high school students.

Aravella Simotas

Aravella Simotas, a lifelong resident of Astoria, is the New York State Assemblywoman representing the 36th District in Queens >> Since taking office in January 2011, Assemblywoman Simotas has established herself as both an effective legislator, and a staunch advocate for students, women and seniors in her district and the environment at large >> She was named a Rising Star and listed in the Capital's 40 Under 40 list of Albany's next generation of political leaders, and was one of the first recipients of the Geraldine Ferraro Leadership Award.
